

Mysteries of the Castle over the sea

The 1910 guidebook to the resort coast near Batumi keeps next entry:

“...Not far from Tsikhisdziri station, on the isolated rock between the railroad track and the sea the villa Castello Mare is being built in the form of a castle, known as Skarzhinsky’s cottage. Eccentricity of construction and the rare beauty of the place involuntarily attract attention of all travelers. The balcony of this cottage, hanging over the sea and providing excellent views, is also of great interest...”

By what was driven engineer Skarzhinsky, who built a castle-style villa right here in XX century?

And what that got to do with Countess Bolgarskaya, whose estate still stands in the thick forest, keeping its mysteries?
